

NANCY DESORMEAU GREEN, '81

What led you to Maria College?

I graduated from St. Joseph's Academy in Albany at the age of 17. For financial reasons, I was unable to attend college full time. Working full time for the United Artist Motion Picture Corporation as a secretary was, initially, an exciting position with free movie perks.

Once the shine wore off, I spent several years taking evening classes at three local Universities. I applied all my liberal arts credits to the new Maria A.A.S. in Nursing; one of the best decisions I ever made.

What do you remember most vividly about your time at Maria College?

The thing I remember most vividly about Maria College was its welcoming environment and passionate caring faculty. They provided the supportive learning environment I needed.
